Healing Earth - Transformative wellness in Seychelles

by A. Selwano

Healing Earth Africa, a leading award-winning spa and wellness brand, has been introduced by L'Escale Resort Marina and Spa.

The Healing Earth product line will be distributed throughout the public areas and in the guest amenities in rooms, suites, and villas at the L'Escale Resort, Marina & Spa, a boutique resort that prides itself on being a "sanctuary for the senses" and is also a member of the Small Luxury Hotels of the World.

Incorporating a holistic approach, Healing Earth is at the forefront for visitors looking to go on a wellness journey that unites their mind, body, and soul. The intention is to encourage a brand-new mind-set that embraces the land, which is our home.

It is a way of life, and L'Escale Resort and Marina looks forward to leading their visitors through this idyllic, peaceful setting on a journey that goes beyond the ordinary.

The one-of-a-kind luxury Wellness & Spa at L'Escale Resort offers an all-encompassing Healing Earth Spa Menu with a product selection combination that will guarantee a more profoundly alluring experience in regenerating, repairing, and altering the skin. Every bottle contains essential vitamins, fatty acids, and enzymes that have been scientifically proven to increase the skin's capacity for regeneration.

Facial, body, and lifestyle amenities are combined in the highly regarded Healing Earth spa product categories. The Kalahari Melon, Marula & Neroli, Mongongo Nut & Coffee, Cinnamon & Orange, Lemon Verbena

& Argan Oil, Healing Ocean, premium Healing Journeys, and deluxe signature Healing Home collections are just a few of the products that are featured at numerous flagship spas across the world.

The majority of the components are acquired in Africa, according to Jamie-lee, the international trainer for Healing Earth. "There are no added chemicals and no additional sulphate. Everything is hundred percent natural."

World™. Our Spa is designed with "barefoot luxury" in mind. We call it the pearl of the resort and it completes your escape from the outside world and allows you to fully succumb to the peace and serenity of its surroundings.

Through its architectural elements, its beautiful layout embraces the therapeutic benefits of water. To get to the spa, visitors must navigate a maze of walkways that cross a water garden with Japanese stimuli.

Along the route, they will pass by water features, palm trees, and native plants that add to the barefoot luxury experience. The skilled therapists provide a variety of reviving, rehydrating, and unwinding spa services, from massages to facials.
